Ansaldo Nucleare, Board of Directors renewed Daniela Gentile new CEO

The new Board of Directors of Ansaldo Nucleare, a company controlled by the Ansaldo Energia Group, met today. Daniela Gentile is the new CEO.

In addition to Daniela Gentile, the Board includes Simone Di Felice, Paola Girdinio, Marco Grillo and Roberto Adinolfi, reconfirmed in the role of President of the Company.

The appointment of the new Board of Directors and the new CEO confirms the importance of Ansaldo Nucleare in the Group's growth strategies and the confidence in the company's significant synergy opportunities with the manufacturing activities of Ansaldo Energia.

Graduated in Chemical Engineering, Daniela Gentile began her career in Ansaldo Nira division as a process engineer of fluid systems for Nuclear Power Plants. After covering positions of growing increasing responsibility within Ansaldo Energia, including those of Purchasing Director and Research and Development Director, in 2021 she was appointed CEO of Ansaldo Green Tech.

Her successor in this role will be appointed in the coming days.

The Ansaldo Energia Group, international leader in the field of power generation and key player of the energy transition, is a company controlled by CDP Equity, Gruppo Cassa Depositi e Prestiti.
